

TAMARA KNAPP

Chief Operating Officer

With more than 20 years of experience holding senior management positions in real estate development and property management, Tamara leads numerous aspects of the company's operations including property management, engineering, sustainability, crisis management, and more. Tamara oversees Bedrock's 100+ commercial and residential properties in downtown Detroit and Cleveland totaling more than 18 million square feet. She ensures the company maintains an energetic, healthy work environment exemplifying best in class commercial real estate practices.

Tamara attended Grand Valley State University where she studied business administration; she also maintains a Michigan real estate sales license. In 2013, Tamara's passion and success led DBusiness magazine to recognize her as one of Detroit's top female business leaders, for which she received a "Power of Women" award. She was also named one of Real Estate Forum's "2016 Women of Influence." Tamara is a member of SHRM, BOMA and CREW and received CREW Network's "2017 Impact Award" honoring extraordinary achievement in commercial real estate through economic and community improvement.
